

Synodon Announces Appointment of Nimal Rodrigo as CFO

For Immediate Release

Edmonton, Alberta – March 3, 2008 - Synodon Inc. ("Synodon") [TSXV-SYD], is pleased to announce the appointment of Nimal Rodrigo as Chief Financial Officer of Synodon Inc. effective immediately.

Mr. Rodrigo has more than 19 years in finance and public company management. He is a Chartered Accountant and has served as CFO for Matrikon Inc. (MTK:TSX) and prior to that as CFO for Intuit's (INTU:NASDAQ) Canadian operations from May 1996 to August 2004. Throughout his tenure at Intuit he had international management responsibilities, including Australia, Latin America and the UK and helped produce cumulative average growth rates in revenues of over 30% and operating income of over 40% while also integrating a number of multi-million dollar acquisitions over the eight year period.

"Nimal Rodrigo brings an extensive financial and operational experience to the Synodon team. His demonstrated leadership in accounting, investor relations, business planning, acquisition strategy and subsequent integration, human resources and international supply chain management will help guide Synodon's strategy as the company deploys its realSens™ technology throughout the world" said Adrian Banica, President and CEO of Synodon Inc.

"I am looking forward to becoming a part of the Synodon team to help create further future success. This is a dynamic time for Synodon and I am excited to be a part of it" said Nimal Rodrigo.

Synodon Inc. (www.synodon.com) is an Edmonton based technology company which has developed and demonstrated an advanced natural gas pipeline leak detection system called realSens™, based on correlation spectroscopy technologies developed under the Canadian Space Program and by Synodon scientists.
